

III. Fill in the gaps with the appropriate preposition or verb in the correct form.

- The two countries _____ off diplomatic relations with each other two years ago.
- Liz has come _____ an excellent solution to our problem.
- Nelly _____ aside her money at the moment to buy a new car.
- All the guests are requested to check _____ before 12 noon.
- Looking at that old photo album brought _____ a lot of happy memories.
- He _____ into a lot of money when his grandfather died.
- The sound of the sirens began to die _____ as soon as the ambulance disappeared around the corner.
- He loves his new job and _____ himself into it recently.

IV. Complete the second sentence so that it has a similar meaning to the first sentence, using the word given. Do not change the word given.

- They haven't been out for months.
ages _____ out.
- If you don't leave immediately, you'll miss your flight.
unless _____ You'll miss your flight _____ right away.
- "If I were you, I'd join a gym", Paul said to Ann.
to _____ Paul _____ a gym.
- The theatre was practically empty.
hardly _____ There _____ the theatre.
- We have never travelled by bus before.
first _____ It's _____ travelled by bus.
- We couldn't finish the exercise because there was no time left.
ran _____ We _____ didn't finish the exercise.

V. Use the word in bold at the end of each line to form another word that best fits each gap.

Why are some people risk-takers? What makes them take part in dangerous or even life- 1) _____ activities? There are different 2) _____ for this. Millions of _____, years ago, when people faced danger 3) _____, risk-taking was 4) _____. Although living in today's world is easier than it was in those days, perhaps that basic instinct still remains. However, taking risks can become a very 5) _____ habit. It is also interesting that the majority of risk-takers seem to be men. Is this because women are more 6) _____ and think twice about taking risks? THREAT
EXPLAIN
DAY
AVOID
HEALTH
SENSE

VI. Complete the text choosing the correct word. Circle the chosen variant.

Sainsbury's, one of Britain's leading supermarkets, are 1) _____ concerned about 2) _____ out their responsibilities regarding environment. They claim that many of their customers want to buy products that don't have a negative environmental 3) _____. Due to this, more than fifty per cent of their own-brand products are environmentally 4) _____. Furthermore, Sainsbury's have been using re-cycled cardboard packaging for 5) _____ on such things as breakfast cereals and biscuits. Many of their shops also offer customers the 6) _____ to recycle their own packaging. They have 7) _____ them with special re-cycling bins for paper, glass and even shoes. These bins are supplied by the local authority and are in 8) _____ at the front of most major stores.

- a) severely b) completely c) deeply d) sadly
- a) carrying b) holding c) setting d) acting
- a) result b) effect c) influence d) state
- a) kind b) helpful c) friendly d) sociable
- a) years b) generations c) eras d) periods
- a) probability b) opportunity c) possibility d) ability
- a) arranged b) equipped c) provided d) presented
- a) display b) appearance c) view d) show

VII. Think of one word which can be used to complete the sentences below.

Nowadays most airlines offer their passengers a good choice of meals, including vegetarian food, all of 1) _____ is of a much higher standard 2) _____ it was ten years ago. The type of meal offered 3) _____ on the time of the day and meals 4) _____ always followed by tea, coffee or refreshments.